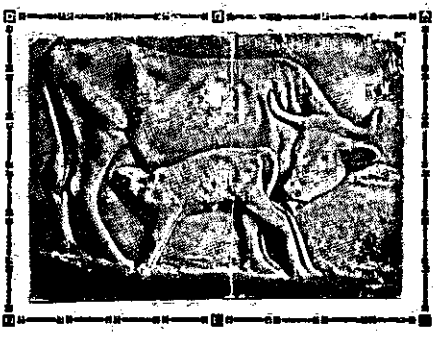
INSTRUCTIONS FOR MEMBERS IN DEALING WITH CASES OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS OBSERVED BY THEM



Instructions for Members in dealing with Cases of Cruelty to Animals observed by them.

The attention of members of the Mysore Pinjrapole Society is invited to the provisions of the law which are extracted overleaf relating to the prevention of cruelty to animals.

They are informed that the District Magistrate has agreed to direct the Police, as in the instruction on the back of this leaflet, to prosecute cases to which their attention is drawn by members of the Society, to whom these leaflets are issued, on production of the leaflet, provided of course the Police officer does not see good reason to refuse to prosecute. A return of the result of the prosecution will be sent to the Honorary Secretary, the Mysore Pinjrapole Society, Lansdowne Buildings, Mysore.

The District Magistrate has also agreed to declare the premises of the Pinjrapole to be an infirmary for the purposes of the Act and to instruct Magistrates who find that animals have been ill-treated to send them to the premises of the Pinjrapole to be cured at the expense of the owner.

The President of the Municipal Council has also undertaken to have the animals in hackney carriages plying for hire, examined before they are licensed to ply for hire and to take action to suspend the license if an unsound animal is being worked in a hackney carriage. Members are informed therefore that, as an alternative to asking the Police to prosecute, if they find an animal plying in a hackney carriage in an unfit state, they may report the number of the hackney carriage to the President, Municipal Council, who will take action accordingly.
